Major General A. R. Bolling, OSC
Deputy Director of Intelligence
Department of the Army
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Bolling:

I warmly welcome the opportunity presented through your letter of 12 January to furnish speakers to deliver strategic estimates during the Thirteenth Course of the Strategic Intelligence School.

With your concurrence, the requested Strategic Estimates will be delivered by the following speakers:

13(a) (4)

Activities and Methods

Latin America	24 February
Western Europe and Africa	3 March
Middle East	8 March
Far East	13 March
USSR and Satellites	23 March

25X1

3.4(c) - 1949 Act

These speakers are well qualified in their respective fields and the association, I am confident, will be a mutually rewarding one.

I suggest that your School effect initial liaison on the entire program through [redacted] who may be reached at telephone extension [redacted] Central Intelligence Agency.

25X1

Your evaluation of Mr. Indwell Montague's lecture in the School's Twelfth Course is appreciated. I trust that the proposed broader CIA participation in your curriculum will add to the effectiveness of both our national and our military intelligence aims.

Sincerely yours,

Signed
